Merchants Bank's Celebrates New Shelburne Road Office!

SOUTH BURLINGTON, VT--Executive Vice President Thomas S. Leavitt announced that the Merchants Bank officially celebrated the opening of their new branch, located at 929 Shelburne Road in South Burlington on Friday, February 27. The branch has been open since Tuesday, January 20 of this year. Remarks by bank officials were delivered during a ribbon-cutting ceremony and visitors enjoyed refreshments and toured the new branch. The Bank also made a $500 donation to the Humane Society of Chittenden County.

The new branch replaces the former branch, which had been operating next to the new site since 1974. The state-of-the-art facility offers full lobby service and three drive-up lanes, including one dedicated to an ATM. The new interior space features teller stations, private office space, a conference room for onsite, private loan closings and customer meetings, and ADA-compliant accommodations. A green space will occupy the site of the previous bank building, with work scheduled for completion in the spring. The facility is adjacent to the K-Mart Plaza.

Leavitt says this is the fourth new construction project that Connor Contracting (Berlin and St. Albans, VT) has built for the bank. "We have been very pleased with the quality of the work. The reception by the communities of White River Junction, St. Albans and Waterbury to our new facilities and programs has encouraged us to keep building," commented Leavitt.

"The new office will be a great environment for customers and staff," adds Maryann Russell, Shelburne Road Branch President. "Our team is very excited to reward our relationships and to make new acquaintances. We are proud to be part of Vermont's independent statewide bank."
